Good Stories for Great Birthdays

1	2	3 4	5
6	_
		7
8
	9		10
11			12   13
	14
15		-	16
		17
18 19	20	21
		22	23
	24		25
			26
	27
28	29   30	31
			32
33		34
35 36	37
			38 39
40
	41
		42

Across

3. There is no historical _____ here. (7)

6. It was General _____ who had founded the new and great Republic of Colombia, and had given it a constitutional government. He was now come to Guayaquil on his way to liberate Peru. (7)

7. Christopher Columbus was The Very Magnificent Lord Don _____ Colon, High Admiral of the Ocean Sea, Viceroy and Governor of the Islands and Tierra

Down

1.	The emphasis in	this book is upon
	American	(10)
2	lohn Adams was horn in

John Adams was born in _______, Massachusetts, October 30, 1735. (9)

4. For Columbus, you must know, was one of the most devout Christian men of his time. And he signed his name to letters, "Christ Bearing." ______ in the Greek language, means Christ-Bearer. (11)

8. In Peru, there was Tupac Amaru, the brave young Indian Cacique, a descendant of the "Child of the Sun" whom Pizarro conquered. He tried to liberate his people from		Firma. (9)	5.	It was then that Columbus saw for the brave young Indian Cacique, a descendant of the "Child of the sun" whom Pizarro conquered. He tried to liberate his people from, but was captured with all his family, and put to death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quikote, -and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, meuring the loss of their "honoured brother, 'And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide," (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania,' honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right" to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bollvar lost to time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned neones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  below and sharing the level of the same and the moon should endured. (4)  128. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bollvar lost to time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  24. The only people	8.	In Peru, there was Tupac Amaru, the		first time the which were to help descendant of the "Child of the Sun" whom Pizarro conquered. He tried to liberate his people from but was captured with all his family, and put to death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak" to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their cance again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skiriting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick(5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvaniae"; but thecalled it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, william Penn's father.  (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost not time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of "urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western				ruin him, and which were to work whom Pizarro conquered. He tried to liberate his people from but was captured with all his family, and put to death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote, -and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother "And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and salled up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvaniar,' but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost not time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (7)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of "urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned nones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness on a discovered landian, and the bendo and here of the United States, including locks of work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a fallow liberate his people from, but was captured with all his family, and put to death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in while it extends the other hand in blossing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning he loss of the his "honoured brother," And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvaniar'; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created egual," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of, 'urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned his and the Lenni when the first tobacco that white men had ever seen. Thus Columbus and his men. Some of the savages smoked rolls of that white men had ever seen. Thus Columbus and his men. Some of Darkness was a mysterious glowore son to longer, instead it was the first captured with all his family, and put to death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their 'honoured brother' And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her quide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and salied up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvaniar', but the holders. (5)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost not time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of "riging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western			9.
death. (5)  9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in Ingland, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother 'And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost not time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  21. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western
9. To-day, high on a ridge of the Andes Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote, -and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their 'honoured brother'' And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  13. The sea of Darkness was a mysterious gloomy sea no longer, instead it was the wideCcean, a safe pathway for brave mariners and good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow washington better of water skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvaniar'; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent lowlands, Bolivar lost the Sign of the Sea of Darkness South of the and the off the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent lowlands, Bolivar lost the Sign of the Sea of Darkness Southers  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Sea of Darkness Southers  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a brow, used to work in his		·		· · · ·
Mountains, high, high above the level of the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother "And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak 'to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and salled up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost not me in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  21. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (ruging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (ruging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William penn published in the hornal pones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness. This was the first tobacco that white med slose San Martin. Jose, is Spanish for (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus n	9.
the sea, stands a gigantic bronze monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a, while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, more under the forbider" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  21. Wing there, "in the Mooshausick (5)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (ruging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness was a fare abler share any store of the United States, in consumer and good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far fevward the setting sun. (8)  24. The only pade and the mensage went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny will make the rough the was a father was a tallow work in his fa monument. It is a figure raised on a pedestal. In one hand it holds a pedestal. In one hand it holds a while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvainai", but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (ruging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness was a far abler man than and to have the peace of (ruging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness was a far abler mae was a far abler man than and to had the Bridge of (6)  25. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
while it extends the other hand in blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick(5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's(4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of(6)  21. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of " urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  22. William Penn published a Plan for the Peace of " urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The only the defined of the Sundard the Bridge of(6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western blessing. (5)  11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  21. William Penn published a Pilan for the Peace of "urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  22. William Penn published a Pilan for the Peace of "urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saving that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sum and the moon should endure. (4)
11. Though 's existence was miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Clcreo, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn bild in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their 'honoured brother'' And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak 'to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick(5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but thealled it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  21. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (1) ruing the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of (1) ruing the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)			10.
miserable, he received comfort from his books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother," And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (6)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  23. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness s mas a mysterious gloomy sea no longer, instead it was the wide Coean, a safe pathway for braw mariners cag good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father	11.		20.	• books, for he delighted to read. In his cell after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania," but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of " urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  gloomy sea no longer, instead it was the wide ocap a fast pathway for brave mariners and good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a bov, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Bail. His father was a tallow, and made soap and candles. (8)  20. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous, and are trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved l			13
after his death, were found Horace, Virgil, Cicero, Don Quixote,—and even a copy of the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother," And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide," (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and salled up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  wide Called in England, the particular paths and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father was a tallow work in his father was tallow work in his father was tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his			10.	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
brave mariners and good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  brave mariners and good ships, a pathway leading to new lands of gold and spices far toward the setting sun. (8)  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow, and made soap and candles.  (8)  20. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange and, self-at the setting sun. (8)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  22. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a chal		•		. .
the New Testament. (7)  12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of ," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  15. Penn amed his land, "Sylvania"; but the Sea of Darkness of the Read how the waves of the Sea of Darkness agend candles. (8)  26. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  27. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam f		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
12. When William Penn died in England, the Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother," And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father.  (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a legaue of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  19. Benjamin Franklin, when a boy, used to work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow ther voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Sea of Darkness of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
Indians sent his wife a message, mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  19. Benjamin Franklin, when in his failed work in his father's shop at the Sign of work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow work in his father's shop at the Sign of the Blue Ball. His father was a tallow worages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness of withe Bule Ball. His father was a tallow gear of Darkness of withe Bule Ball. His father was a fallow gear for parkles, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous, and leade with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christo	12.
mourning the loss of their "honoured brother" And with the message went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness py the Western  wan far alter was a tallow, and made soap and candles. (8)  25. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness potenthe was a flands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  22. The stand with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  22. Because of restrict			19.
brother				* · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
went a present of beautiful skins for a cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lows a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was ure that he come across for he was ure that he come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was ure that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for he was user that he had come across for				• cloak "to protect her while passing through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father.  (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of "urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was used and the moon should the sear of Darkness by the Western  20. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Sea of Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  24. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the through the thorny wilderness without her guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across in "(4)  20. Columbus talked with sailors about their voyages. He heard how the waves of the Saend Darkness sometimes cast upon the Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian , he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  24. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  25. Because of guide." (4)  14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across the facts of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotasm and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons.			20.
14. Getting into their canoe again, they rounded Indian Point and Fox Point, and sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick
Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  Islands of the Azores, gigantic bamboos, queer trees, strange nuts, seeds, carved logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an attlesnake-skin meant an he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni length f	14.	- , ,		• =
sailed up a beautiful sheet of water, skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  sailed up a dense forest, to a spot near the logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotsam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  29. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of Eur				· skirting a dense forest, to a spot near the mouth of the Mooshausick (5)  15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of" urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sac of Darkness by the Western  logs, and bodies of hideous with flat faces, the flotam and jetsam from unknown lands far to the west. (3)  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  22. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)				· ·
mouth of the Mooshausick
15. Penn named his land, "Sylvania"; but the called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  16. "All men are created equal," and have the Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an , he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		- · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
called it Penn-sylvania, in honour of old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  21. Christopher Columbus's father was an Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an  Italian (6)  23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an  Leasil It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)	15.
old Admiral Penn, William Penn's father. (4) 23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an 16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5) 25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9) 26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4) 26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9) 27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4) 28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6) 24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  Italian (6) 23. To send a rattlesnake-skin meant an, he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)  Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of rericid to th			21.
(4)  16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)
16. "All men are created equal," and have the right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western   , he said. It was the same as sending a challenge. (5)   Secause of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)			23.
right "to Life, Liberty, and the pursuit of Happiness." Many of the Signers were	16.
Happiness." Many of the Signers wereholders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  25. Because of restrictions, the Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4) holders. (5)  17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  Roosevelt section is somewhat limited. (9)  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)			25.
17. Then the South American Liberator was held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  26. As for Lafayette, he was soon after carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
held in such high esteem here, that after the death of Washington his family sent Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  carried to the town of in Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)	17.		26.
Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		held in such high esteem here, that after
Bolivar several relics of the national hero of the United States, including locks of Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  Nuns. (9)  27. "My father," John Marshall would say with kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		the death of Washington his family sent		Pennsylvania, and left with the Moravian
Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		Bolivar several relics of the national hero
Washington's (4)  18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  kindled feelings and emphasis, "my father was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		of the United States, including locks of	27.	"My father," John Marshall would say with
18. As soon as the Army reached the lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  was a far abler man than any of his sons. To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		Washington's (4)
lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing for battle. With his men, he took his stand at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  To him I owe the solid foundation of all my own success in" (4)  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)	18.			was a far abler man than any of his sons.
at the Bridge of (6)  22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  28. The Chief advanced, and in the Sachem's name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		lowlands, Bolivar lost no time in preparing
22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		for battle. With his men, he took his stand		my own success in" (4)
22. William Penn published a "Plan for the Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; for he was sure that he had come across the Sea of Darkness by the Western  name saluted him, and taking William by the hand, made a speech pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni Lenapé should live together in love, so long as the sun and the moon should endure. (4)		at the Bridge of (6)	28.
Peace of," urging the formation of a league of European countries. (6) pledging kindness and neighbourliness, saying that the English and the Lenni ones, whom Columbus named Indians; Lenapé should live together in love, so for he was sure that he had come across long as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)	22.
a league of European countries. (6)  24. The only people were the dark-skinned ones, whom Columbus named Indians; Lenapé should live together in love, so for he was sure that he had come across long as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)
24. The only people were the dark-skinned saying that the English and the Lenni ones, whom Columbus named Indians; Lenapé should live together in love, so for he was sure that he had come across long as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)
ones, whom Columbus named Indians; Lenapé should live together in love, so for he was sure that he had come across long as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)	24.	The only people were the dark-skinned for he was sure that he had come across Iong as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)		ones, whom Columbus named Indians;		Lenapé should live together in love, so the Sea of Darkness by the Western endure. (4)		for he was sure that he had come across		long as the sun and the moon should the Sea of Darkness by the Western
			30.	When our War for Independence was

- 27. Above all else, may this book, day by day, help mothers and educators to bring to the children's remembrance on these great birthdays, something of the devotion, the patience, the sufferings, and the personal sacrifice of the noble men, who, under the good hand of God, laid the foundations of American ____ and Self-Government. (7)
- 29. To-day, the Island of Cuba the "Ever_____ Island," the "Pearl of the Antilles," is a flourishing Republic with a world commerce. And during the World War, the red, white, and blue, singlebestarred Flag of Cuba, waved over a brave Cuban Army, the ally of the United States. (8)
- 32. What that _____ was, strange as it may seem, no record tells us. It was not the Stars and Stripes, for they were not adopted till two years after. (4)
- 34. When Columbus was a boy, there was a story told that the Earth was _____.

  Nearly every one who heard it thought it foolish--absurd. (5)
- 36. Above all things, Dom Pedro wanted to stimulate the love of _____ among his People, to give the boys and girls of every class an equal chance. Free public schools were established all over the Empire. (9)
- 38. In those days, it was a crime in England for any one to hold or attend religious meetings of Separatists. The _____ printed in the English tongue, had long been forbidden reading, but in William Bradford's days, it was beginning to be read quite widely, specially by Separatists. (5)
- 40. When Napoleon's Army threatened to invade Portugal, the Royal Family of Portugal fled in terror of their lives. They escaped from Lisbon, crossed the Atlantic, and found refuge in the royal Colony of ______. (6)
- 41. The Holy Allies conspired to put down all democratic principles, and stamp out all representative government from Europe. They also conspired to prevent the formation of any new Republics in other parts of the World, and to chain the liberty of the _____, which is the Voice of the People. Thus these Holy Allies joined forces to uphold the divine right of Kings and the tyranny of absolute monarchies. (5)
- 42. One time, the Emperor learned that 3,000,000 francs had been pledged by citizens for a fine bronze statue of himself to be given the place of honour in a city

- over, he returned to Poland. He became her leading Patriot, defending her against the invasions of Russia, Prussia, and Austria. "Father ______" his men called him, as he led them into battle. (8)
- 31. There were children on the Mayflower —Oceanus Hopkins who was born at sea, Peregrine{133} White who gave his first baby-cry soon after the Mayflower reached the New World, Francis Billington who almost blew up the Mayflower, while trying to make ______, and John Billington. (9)
- 33. _____ was the name which Marco Polo gave to China. (6)
- 35. Roosevelt found on his return home that some geographers and South American explorers laughed at his story of the River of _____. He laughed, too, at their incredulity; and presently the Brazilian Government, having established the truth of his exploration and named the river after him, Rio Teodoro, his laughter prevailed. (5)
- 36. In the chief city of Cathay the Golden, ruled over by _____ Khan, stood the Grand Khan's palace. (6)
- 37. A negro drove the team, and a negro girl walked behind. So went little John Marshall with his father and mother, from the log cabin to their new Blue Ridge home, which was not a ____ cabin, but a frame house built of whipsawed uprights and boards. (3)
- 39. But little Abe had the best teacher of all, his mother, Nancy Lincoln. For, though his father could scarcely write his own name, his mother could read, and she loved _____. She taught her little son his letters and how to read. (5) square. Dom P	edro, expressing his deep gratitude, said	that it would please him far more if the	money could be used for public	_ instead. (7)

This crossword puzzle was created by Distributed Proofreaders with EclipseCrossword. Try it today—it's free!