

Marjorie Dean: Marvelous Manager

Across

1. Miss Susanna wants to give one of these to the dormitory so it has one of its own.
3. "Try to regard the experience from the stoical standpoint of a sardine," Phil advised comfortingly, as the dormitory girls packed how many of them to a vehicle?
7. Marshmallows and what were to be toasted over the campfire flames on sticks?
11. Who Miss Susanna has tasked with bringing back from New York all the books

Down

1. The name of the Beauty Contest organiser who said "I never forget anything I happen to remember" and "I am never disliked by a person who likes me."
2. Marjorie's room-mate, sister to her unrequited love interest and creator of several impromptu rhyming jingles.
4. Signor Baretti's restaurant is the Hamilton girls' favorite tea room, but how many tables does it have?
5. The colour of the car Doris drove to the Lotus tea room for a luncheon with Leslie.

- which she bought at auction.
14. Flavour of pudding Doris ate at the Lotus tea room.
 15. Candidates for membership to the club known as the Travelers had to shove a penny along the floor using this.
 16. Marjorie conferred the _____ and noble order of the pat on her friend Jeremiah.
 18. Has the nickname Luciferous and is private secretary to the College President.
 19. Candidates for membership to the club known as the Travelers had to carry a good-sized one of these using a teaspoon.
 20. To which Castle did Marjorie's room-mate go to spend Thanksgiving at?
 21. The aloof Ice Queen, who Marjorie thinks is beautiful.
 22. Some of the dormitory girls were going to walk to the campus on the day of Signor Baretto's special Thanksgiving dinner, but were prevented from doing so by this.
 24. Marjorie received a rare old book on this subject from Miss Susanna and it was the only known copy of it in the United States.
 26. Campfires were to be built to roast potatoes, chestnuts and what?
 28. Eventual form of transportation used to save the day and get the dormitory girls to Guiseppe Baretto's Thanksgiving dinner.
 29. Whose family Miss Susanna has decided to spend Christmas with.
 30. Attempted alternate form of transportation, after the first failed, to take the off-campus dormitory girls to Signor Baretto's Inn for the Thanksgiving dinner, which also failed to show up.
 31. The maid at the Hamilton Arms who helps Miss Susanna and her major-domo Jonas.
 33. Marjorie's nickname or pet name for her Mother.
 34. What Marjorie will wear as one of the judges of the Beauty Contest.
 35. What Marjorie used as a Wind Sail when she was a little girl.
 37. How many dollars per head Signor Baretto charged the dormitory girls to eat Thanksgiving dinner in his restaurant.
 38. The play "The _____ Party", a two-act comedy directed by Leila.
 39. What the girls hung across the door, after the noise complaints, to deaden the sounds from within their room.
 6. Marjorie's nickname or pet name for her Father.
 8. Mrs. Gaylord had admitted to Leslie that she had been engaged by Mr. Cairns to be her what?
 9. Originally planned form of transportation to take the off-campus dormitory girls to Signor Baretto's Inn for the Thanksgiving dinner.
 10. Miss Susanna has selected Marjorie to be this for the late Brooke Hamilton.
 12. A place Doris wants to visit but she doesn't believe it will be different from London or Paris.
 13. Type of shop from which Leslie watched her plan unfold to foil the dormitory girls and their Thanksgiving dinner.
 17. Marjorie is convinced that she will never do this.
 21. Type of store in which the girls took shelter from the storm whilst waiting for their transportation to take them to Signor Baretto's Thanksgiving dinner.
 23. It was time to open the box, but what is in the box?
 25. Marjorie collected this from the bulletin board.
 27. Location of the dance which the dormitory girls will host on Thanksgiving night.
 29. Flavour of mousse made at Baretto's tea room which the girls adore.
 30. Agreed upon form of communication for Leslie to request the immediate return of Mrs. Gaylord.
 32. The Hob-Goblin and trouble maker.
 36. Where Marjorie decided to go for Thanksgiving.